Communications:

A person alone
Is like a tree that has no leaves
That bears no fruit
It has no beauty
Nor fragrance
Like a solitary oak
In a winter field
Bare and stripped of its glory
Unable to soak up the sunshine
But none the less
Drains the earth of water
Such is a person
That cannot find happiness
Like a solitary oak . . .
In a winter field.

Bob Hunt

Hunt: "It's a Whole New World Out There."

Fullback Bob Hunt has led the Student Princes in scoring all four seasons and was top rusher the last three. He ranks second in 'Berg rushing with 3,214 yards in 718 carries in 38 games, and led the Ohio Conference in rushing last fall. Christmas night he represented the smallest college ever to send a player to the North-South Shrine game in Miami's Orange Bowl.

In late January, Hunt was the Cleveland Browns' twelfth selection in the National Football League draft; and became the fourth 'Berg graduate to get the chance to play professional football. The native of Tiffin has said he will be able to make it if he can get his foot in the door. "A person is as good as his competition — and I like competition."

When a resolute young man steps up to the great bully, the world, and takes him boldly by the beard . . .

. . . he is often surprised to find that the beard comes off in his hand, that it was only tied on to scare away timid adventurers.

— Oliver Wendell Holmes

"I would rather be ashes than dust. I would rather that my spark would burn out in a brilliant blaze than be stifled by dry rot. I would rather be a superb meteor, every atom of me in magnificent glow, than a sleepy and permanent planet. The proper function of man is to live, not exist. I shall not waste my days trying to prolong them. I shall use my time."

— Jack London
